PRAYER FOR BLESSING: Joshua Mercer

Our souls are poured out before you, O God, as we look for more in life than contentment with family, friends, and possessions. We thank you, dear Lord, for all your blessings. Yet, in our souls, we long to be a blessing to others on your behalf; as Abraham was a blessing to many nations; as Hannah longed for something in her life to offer back to God.

We long to make a difference in this world for you. Open our eyes, good Lord, to whatever you have already entrusted for the good of your people.

Open our ears, Lord,
to intersections between human need and heart's desire.

Open our hearts, Lord,
To recognize and nurture new gifts, to consider unique possibilities dawning on the horizon.

Our souls are poured out before you, O God.

Let your servants find favor in your sight. Amen.

Let us spend a moment in silent contemplation.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE: Rev. David Herrmann

Softly and tenderly, Jesus is calling, calling for you and for me.

See, on the portals he's waiting and watching, watching
for you and for me.
Though we have sinned, he has mercy and pardon, pardon
for you and for me.
Softly and tenderly, Jesus is calling, O sinner, come home.
