News Around the Church

A Message
from
Pastor Garry

“⁷ Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸ For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.” (Matthew 7:7-8, NKJV).

“Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer! That calls me from a world of care, and bids me at my Father’s throne make all my wants and wishes known. In seasons of distress and grief, my soul has often found relief, and oft escaped the tempter’s snare, by thy return, sweet hour of prayer!” (UMH #496, “Sweet Hour of Prayer”).

Prayer. The wonderful and blessed time we get to spend with our Lord as we seek His face and let the Spirit transform us more and more into the image and likeness of our God. Prayer. The sacred time we can make our requests known to God, trusting that God hears and answers our prayers. Since the beginning of September, I have been preaching on the importance of prayer. I am doing this because I want to remind us about the place of prayer in our lives, both in our personal faith, and in our corporate, shared faith. Without prayer the church can do no great work, and without prayer, we can do no great work. Our lives as Christians are powerless without a life that is fully connected to God in prayer.

My desire in taking this time to talk about prayer is to encourage us to make prayer a priority in our life and in the life of the church. If prayer becomes a priority for us, then I believe we will see the movement of God in ways we have not anticipated or experienced before. I think God wants to do some truly amazing things in our midst and God is simply waiting for us to come before Him in prayer to ask, seek, and knock. As we ask, seek, and knock in faith, hope, and trust, I think God is going to pour out the Holy Spirit in our lives in a fresh way. Yet, for this to happen, we need to pray.

In this sermon series on prayer, we have considered the necessity of prayer. We talked about the importance of having a living, breathing, dynamic faith because that is necessary for us to pray. We discussed how it is necessary to pray with faith, pray every day, and to pray persistently. In the second week we considered the power we have through prayer. We talked about how that power often remains untouched because we fail to ask. We were reminded that faith in our prayer to God is the key. We must have faith God will do and act. We must, through faith, pray boldly and with expectation that God will answer our prayers. In week three we looked at the purpose in prayer. Primarily, the purpose is to build our relationship with God! Then at the end of September, we looked at the possibilities of prayer.

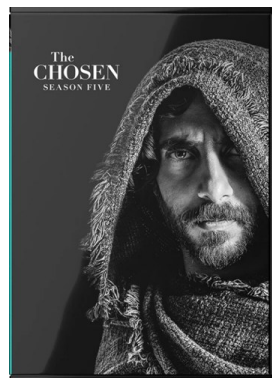

As we enter October, we will be looking at the essentials of prayer and the reality of prayer. We will take a brief pause from the series to hear an update about God's work through the ministry of the NOMADS by Rod and Janie Reeder, then conclude the series looking at the weapon of prayer, and on All Saint's Sunday, talk about prayer and praying people.

My hope through this series is that we all become stronger people of prayer. As quoted in the hymn above, prayer places us before our heavenly Father's throne wherein we are able to share our deepest feelings and needs, a place where we are safe and heard. It is before the throne of God we can place the desire of our hearts.

If we desire God to do great things, then we need to make sure we take that sweet hour of prayer and follow Jesus' instructions to ask, believing it will be given to us. Seek, believing we will find. Knocking, trusting God will open the door. It is true. Prayer changes things. More importantly, prayer changes us and grows us in our relationship to God and prepares us to receive all the things God wants to give. Pray without ceasing. Pray!

Blessings!
Pastor Garry

"USING THE BIBLE TO LEARN WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A CHRISTIAN"

*If you declare with your mouth "Jesus is Lord"
and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved
(Romans 10:9)*

This verse is a doorway we have to walk through on our path to becoming a follower of Christ. The questions I think about are:
1. How do we get to that doorway with our minds and hearts? And:
2. How do we live our lives after we pass through this door?

This study is intended to help people gain confidence in the Bible and what it teaches about how to love as followers of Christ. This study began Tuesday September 15th and will continue for 6 weeks. You are welcome to join any time.. 7pm @

EMMANUEL OUTREACH

Five Steps Toward Our Thrift Shop
Sometimes a new ministry begins with a vision large enough to feel a little overwhelming.

That may be true as we begin thinking about the next chapter for the EOC and the creation of a thrift shop in the former sanctuary at Emmanuel. There is much to consider: preparing the building, creating a welcoming retail space, determining what donations we can receive, establishing policies, finding volunteers, understanding financial and legal responsibilities, and making sure the ministry truly serves our neighbors well.

Seen all at once, it can feel like a very large undertaking. But we are learning to look at it differently. Rather than seeing one enormous project, we are approaching the work as five manageable projects, each with its own purpose, tasks, and opportunities for people to participate.

That may be one of the most exciting parts of this effort. We do not need one person who knows how to do everything. We need many people willing to share what they already know how to do. Some will understand buildings. Others will know retail. Some will be good organizers. Some will enjoy working with clothing or creating displays. Others may know bookkeeping, volunteer management, marketing, carpentry, accessibility, technology, or simply how to make people feel welcome. There is room in this ministry for many gifts.

Project One: Governance and Legal Readiness

Before we move furniture or install clothing racks, we need to make sure the foundation of the ministry is sound. This phase will involve working with Newark First UMC leadership, the Trustees, our financial team, the Upper New York Conference, and appropriate professional advisers to clarify how the thrift ministry will operate.

Questions will include: Who will have responsibility for the shop? How will income and expenses be handled? What insurance coverage is needed? What are our responsibilities regarding sales tax and financial reporting? What policies will help us operate with integrity and transparency? People with experience in church administration, finance, law, insurance, nonprofit work, or organizational leadership may have especially valuable gifts to offer during this phase.

Project Two: Building and Accessibility Readiness

The former sanctuary needs to be prepared for a new purpose. There is ceiling work to be completed. The front entrance may need attention. We also need to carefully evaluate the existing ramp and make sure the building is safe, accessible, and ready to welcome people of all ages and abilities. We will need to consider lighting, entrances and exits, aisle space, storage, fire safety, signage, and the overall flow of the building.

This phase also includes the thoughtful removal or relocation of sanctuary furnishings. The pulpit, altar tables, pews, memorial items, and other pieces are part of Emmanuel's history and deserve to be handled with care and respect. Those with experience in construction, carpentry, electrical work, accessibility, architecture, property management, safety, or even simply moving and organizing may find a place to contribute here.

Project Three: Designing the Thrift Shop

Once the building is ready, we will begin shaping the actual shop. Our hope is to create a Continued on next page.....

space that feels clean, attractive, organized, and welcoming. We do not want the room to feel crowded with mismatched racks, overflowing tables, and boxes tucked into every corner. We want it to be a place where people enjoy shopping and where they are treated with dignity. That will require imagination. We will need to develop a floor plan, locate affordable shelving and clothing racks, create attractive displays, organize merchandise by category, and determine how donations will move from intake to sorting to the sales floor. There will also be decisions about pricing. Our current thinking is that simple, modest prices will provide clarity for shoppers while allowing us to create a quiet and compassionate way to assist anyone who cannot afford what they need. If you have experience in retail, merchandising, decorating, organizing, woodworking, sewing, fashion, or creative reuse, this may be the project where your gifts shine.

Project Four: Building the Volunteer Ministry

A thrift shop cannot operate without people. But volunteering does not necessarily mean standing behind a cash register for six hours. There will be many different jobs: sorting clothing, checking household goods, pricing merchandise, arranging displays, greeting donors, working at checkout, cleaning, restocking, helping with social media, making signs, keeping records, or preparing the store for seasonal changes. Some people may volunteer once a week. Others may help once a month. Some may prefer a short shift behind the scenes rather than working with the public. We want to build a volunteer ministry that recognizes that people have different gifts, abilities, schedules, and energy levels. This is not simply about filling work shifts. It is about creating a community of people who find meaning and fellowship while serving their neighbors.

Project Five: Communications, Policies, and Opening

Finally, we will need to prepare for opening day. That means creating donation guidelines, volunteer training materials, customer policies, signage, marketing pieces, social media posts, and information that clearly explains why this ministry exists. We will also need to tell the story. The thrift shop will not simply be a place where people buy inexpensive clothing or household items. It will become another way Emmanuel Outreach Center supports the wider community. Proceeds will help strengthen ministries that are already feeding, clothing, supporting, and caring for our neighbors. People with gifts in writing, photography, graphic design, communications, advertising, training, social media, or hospitality may have an important role in this final phase.

Many Gifts, One Purpose

The Apostle Paul reminds us that there are “varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit” and “varieties of services, but the same Lord” (1 Corinthians 12:4–5). That feels especially appropriate as we begin this work. No one of us has all the knowledge or skill needed to create this ministry. Fortunately, God has never asked the Church to operate that way. Instead, God gathers people with different abilities and experiences and invites them to place those gifts alongside one another. Over the coming months, you will hear more about these five projects and about specific opportunities to participate. For now, we invite you to begin thinking and praying:

What do I know how to do? What experience do I have? What gift might I bring?

You may discover that something you have always considered simply part of your work, hobby, or life experience is exactly what this ministry needs. We do not have to build this all at once. We only need to take the next faithful step—and trust that God will provide the people, wisdom, and gifts needed for the steps that follow.

“How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!”
— Psalm 133:1

Caring Connections

“Open my eyes that I might see. Psalm 119:18

Over the summer I had an appointment at the medical building at the hospital. I am habitually late, but this was for new hearing aids, and I was going to be there on time! The hospital is across town, so I knew I had to start out early. I was ready and drove out of the garage, hit the garage door opener and the door started going down but then went right back up. Down and up it went, until I was able to wiggle the wires just enough to get it to stay down. Naturally I was now hurrying and hit all the RED lights going through town. I was not a “Happy Camper” I get to the hospital parking lot where a man gestures me to stop. He asked me for a dollar so that he could get the bus home. I gave it to him and thought, if I had been any earlier I would not have been there to help him. I have read, “Open My Eyes That I Might See” and sang it in church on Sundays, but this time I really did SEE. Let’s remember our church friends who cannot come to church with a call, a note or a visit. They will be glad to SEE or hear from you !!!

NOMADS stands for Nomads On a Mission Active in Divine Service. Or as our two NOMAD volunteers Rod & Janie Reeder like to say NOMADS stands for Northern Old Methodists Avoiding Deep Snow! NOMADS provide volunteer labor for historically Methodist organizations. They demonstrate God’s love through their work and by listening to the people with whom they work. NOMADS do new construction, remodeling, and repairs for churches, children’s homes, camps, colleges, outreach missions and disaster rebuilding.

NOMADS began in 1988 in Texas where a group of Methodists from Illinois, Iowa and Indiana wintered and someone finally said, "I am bored, there must be some good we can do here." So, they approached local Methodist churches and offered their services. That first year there were 24 members who completed five projects in Texas and Oklahoma. NOMADS grew as an all-volunteer organization under the North Central Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church until 2001 when they incorporated and became an organization under the General Board of Global Ministries. After Hurricane Katrina in 2005, they began doing disaster recovery work. Currently, NOMADS offers about 175 projects each year and have about 700 active members. They donate on regular, disaster and drop-in projects more than 110,000 hours of volunteer labor each year.

Bell Choir

Are you looking for a way to serve our church and community that's also a fun time with great people? Consider joining the bell choir! We need one more ringer to be able to cover all the parts in our 3-octave music, and an additional ringer would allow us to add the beautiful low bells that have been untouched for a couple of years. Music reading experience is helpful but not a requirement. Please contact Kathy Cornwell if you'd like to give it a try! kathleencornwell68@gmail.com

Chancel Choir

Do you know people who love to sing who don't regularly attend church? Joining a great choir may be just the incentive they need to bring them into the fold! (Singers gotta sing!)

We especially need men (tenor and bass) and altos. Please let Kathy Cornwell or Stephanie Mercer know if you would like us to contact someone with an invitation. More singers make our harmony sweeter as we offer praise to God!

To all of the wonderful people of FUMC.

I eagerly read every word of the Messenger, and am so thankful to have it arrive in the mail! You are doing so many wonderful things: enriching the area with needed food, lunches, dinners, and funds; uplifting folks with your songs, bell choir, your community gatherings and your positive vibes. The rummage sale and cookie sale take untold hours of work, dedication and joyful giving, all so the many needs of the greater community are met. You are an inspiration to a close relationship to God and Jesus, with your offering of Bible Studies, Messenger, "Mini-sermons" and your focus on God's LOVE.

Please know that all you do is so appreciated and noticed!

With much love and hope to see you soon.

Dear Sponsors,

"GLOW UP GIRL"

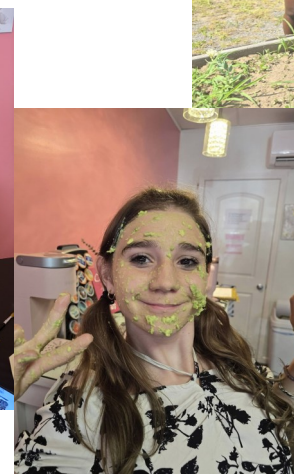

As summer comes to a close, we want to take a moment to simply say thank you. Because of your support, girls from across Wayne County experienced a summer filled with adventure, learning, giving back, friendship, and, of course, tons and tons of fun! This summer was about more than keeping girls busy. It was about creating opportunities for them to learn, grow, challenge themselves, and discover what they are capable of. Each day included ELA and reading activities designed to keep academic skills growing throughout the summer. Girls read, discussed stories, worked on vocabulary and writing, and had opportunities to build confidence in expressing their ideas. Their well-being was just as important. Each week, Optimal Health joined us for mental health and wellness groups where girls could talk, reflect, build healthy coping skills, and learn more about themselves and one another, all in a space where they felt safe, heard, and supported.

And then came the adventures.....Girls learned to ride horses at Simply Equine LLC. For some, climbing onto a horse was scary. With encouragement from staff and one another, they found the courage to try. Along the way, they learned about trust, responsibility, and confidence. At Bristol Mountain Aerial Adventures, the girls faced a challenge many had never experienced before, a ropes course high above the ground. Some discovered they were afraid of heights. Others discovered they were braver than they thought. With support from their peers and staff, every girl completed the challenge, and the zipline at the end was an unforgettable reward! The girls also learned that being part of a community means giving back. Throughout the summer, they volunteered through community cleanups, food pantry service, animal sanctuary projects, and gardening at the Trail of Hope. They learned that leadership isn't just about being in charge, it is about showing up, helping others, and making a difference. One of our favorite parts of the summer was welcoming women from our community into the program to share their talents and experiences. Girls learned to make homemade bread and soap, tried line dancing, and explored sustainable gardening. Most importantly, they saw women of all colors and backgrounds using their skills to teach, lead, and inspire others. And then there was the simple joy of being kids—making affirmation jars, painting seashells, creating suncatchers, playing games, having water-balloon tosses, making art, laughing, and making memories together. But the most important part of You Glow Girl Summer wasn't any one activity. It was giving girls the opportunity to try new things, step outside their comfort zones, discover their strengths, build friendships, support one another, and experience a summer where they felt safe, supported, and valued.

Your support made that possible. You helped provide experiences that many girls may not otherwise have had. You helped keep their minds engaged, supported their emotional well-being, created opportunities to serve their community, and gave them space to simply be themselves. Most importantly, you helped send a powerful message to our girls:

Your community believes in you.....Your community sees you..... Your community wants to see you succeed. Thank you for being part of the village that shows up for our girls. We truly couldn't have done it without you. Please enjoy the attached photos and highlights from an incredible summer.

With gratitude,
Emma Tuck
Assistant to the CEO-Glow Up Girl

Family Promise Update

August was a month of continued growth for Family Promise of Wayne County as we worked alongside local families facing housing instability and continued strengthening the support available to them.

We are especially excited to welcome John Costello as our new Care Coordinator. John will work directly with families as they navigate housing challenges, connect with community resources, and develop a path toward greater stability.

We are also incredibly grateful to have recently received a $30,000 grant from the Bullis Fund in support of our work. Funding like this allows Family Promise to continue responding when a family is facing the difference between housing stability and crisis.

This fall, we are also preparing for our Fall into Hope fundraiser, and we would love the support of our First United Methodist Church family. We are currently seeking donated gift baskets for the event. Whether created by an individual, family, church group, or ministry, every basket helps us raise funds to continue serving families throughout Wayne County.

Through every new staff member, community partnership, grant, and act of generosity, one thing remains constant: families do better when they do not have to face hardship alone.

We remain deeply grateful to First United Methodist Church for continuing to give Family Promise a place where families can walk through the door and know someone is ready to help.

With grace, Nancy
